Black Sheep Restaurant is Jacksonville's premier rooftop lounge and outdoor dining area and is the only rooftop bar in Jacksonville that offers views of the St. Johns River, as well as historic Riverside and Downtown. We offer several options for small parties, group dining, and semi-private events on our roof.

Black Sheep Restaurant does not take reservations on the roof; however, casual and smaller groups (less than 15) may opt for a "non-contract" party. All lounge-area furniture, high-top tables and bar seats are offered on a first-come, first-served basis while our host team assists with table seating. Please arrive early for the best selection and shortest wait. For large groups, we recommend booking a contract with a member of our management team. Here are some available options for large groups on the rooftop:

- Standing receptions with a contract can be accommodated in our rooftop bar area or at "the point," a semi-private space that can accommodate up to 50 people Sunday through Thursday and up to 30 people Friday and Saturday night. This arrangement requires a $15.00 per person food minimum, plus an additional fee of $5 per person on Friday and Saturday nights. For groups that rent the point, all charges are presented on one check; separate checks for drinks can be accommodated in the bar area Sunday through Thursday. Separating checks for food is not an option for standing receptions.

- Seated dinner contracts may be booked Sunday through Thursday on the rooftop. Groups of up to 24 people require a $35 per person food minimum, and groups of 12 or more must order from a limited menu to ensure food quality and speed of service. Separate checks are available in the seated contract format. Groups of more than 30 require a complete roof buyout; the buyout fee varies based on the day of week. We offer standard dining room reservations in the downstairs restaurant for seated dinners 7 nights a week for up to 20 guests which require no minimums or special menus.
- We offer options for seated brunch or standing reception-style brunch contracts on the roof that depend on time frame, number of guests, day of the week, etc. Large group options at brunch vary for several reasons. More information can be provided by calling the manager on duty.
- Our rooftop is closed for business Monday – Friday from 10:30-3pm but we do offer seated and standing reception-style events during these hours. There are no minimums for these events and a prix fixed menu is not required but suggested for groups over 20.
